

OFF THE PAGE

An afternoon of books

Saturday 1 June, 2 - 5pm, £1 entry

Immerse yourself in a lively mix of talks, workshops and collaborative activities, and learn more about resources and networks for book artists. Everyone welcome!

2.00: ILLUSTRATED TALK

Lee Shearman and Matt Fleming (Borbonesa/Permanent Bookshop) have traveled the world showing their books, meeting book artists and running workshops. Today they give an illustrated talk on how they got started making books and their recent animation project.

2.00 - 5.00: DROP-IN WORKSHOPS & ACTIVITIES (No booking required)

Bibliotherapy with Lucy May Schofield

The Bibliotherapy Artists Books Library (BABL) offers a sympathetic listening ear with Lucy and her traveling collection of books.

Miniature Books with Lee Shearman and Matt Fleming

Learn the intricate art of paper folding to create books that can be made and taken anywhere

Writing with Xelis de Toro

Develop a text which can be incorporated into your own book

Making Zines with Jackie Batey

Learn simple binding techniques, then draw, cut and paste or write to get your ideas onto paper

Workshops with the Sussex Book Arts Collective

Collaborative books, miniature books that go out into the world, and a demonstration of making the concertina format.

The Bookends Lounge with Carol Ann Quinn and Kirsten Norwood

Come along to 'the place where the books never end' to collaborate, swap and network with other makers of books.

The Press & Release Cafe

Refresh your body and mind with tea, coffee and cakes all afternoon